The purpose of the policy and procedure manual is to:

- Provide guidance for consistency and continuity in the management of the organization;
- Serve as a record of specific policies to direct decision-making.

The policy and procedure manual includes policies, procedures and reference material relevant to the Nova Scotia Dietetic Association.

They must be able to defend their request for an extension to the Registration Committee and show, if they are working, that they are in an environment that supports their professional development.

In the case of failure of the second attempt of the CDRE, the candidate's Temporary Membership is revoked and NSDA notifies their employer. Upgrading will be required before the third and final attempt at the CDRE is made.

Policy

Temporary members who have unsuccessfully written the Canadian Dietetic Registration Exam (CDRE) may apply for a renewal of their temporary membership. A candidate may only request renewal of temporary membership after the first failure. Renewals will not be considered after second and subsequent failures.

Acceptance will be based on meeting all the following criteria:

- The candidate meets all criteria for initial registration as a temporary member according to the Professional Dietitian’s Act and Bylaws, and
- The candidate has regular communication with a professional dietitian as a mentor. The mentor has current experience in the relevant practice area, and
- If the mentor is not employed at the candidate’s work setting and if the candidate is employed in a clinical setting (provides direct client care including medical nutrition therapy), an onsite regulated health professional agrees to serve as a support to the candidate to appropriately address professional practice issues, and
- The mentor(s) confirm to the executive manager that they are aware of the candidate’s exam results and declare their willingness to serve as mentors, and
- The candidate and mentor(s) agree to document the nature and timing of the communication that takes place between themselves. The documentation is signed by the temporary member and mentor(s).

If the executive manager does not approve the renewal, the candidate may appeal the decision to the Registration Committee.

It is the candidate’s responsibility to find mentorship.
